All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women merely players,
They have their exits and their entrances,
And one man in his time plays many parts.

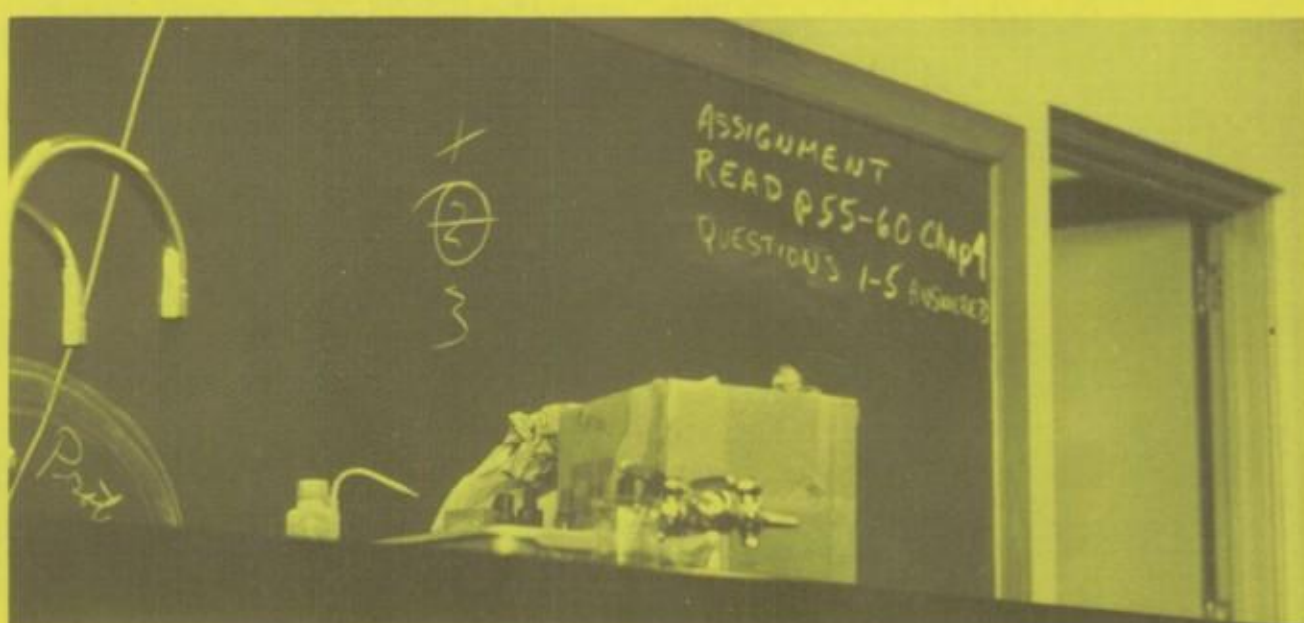

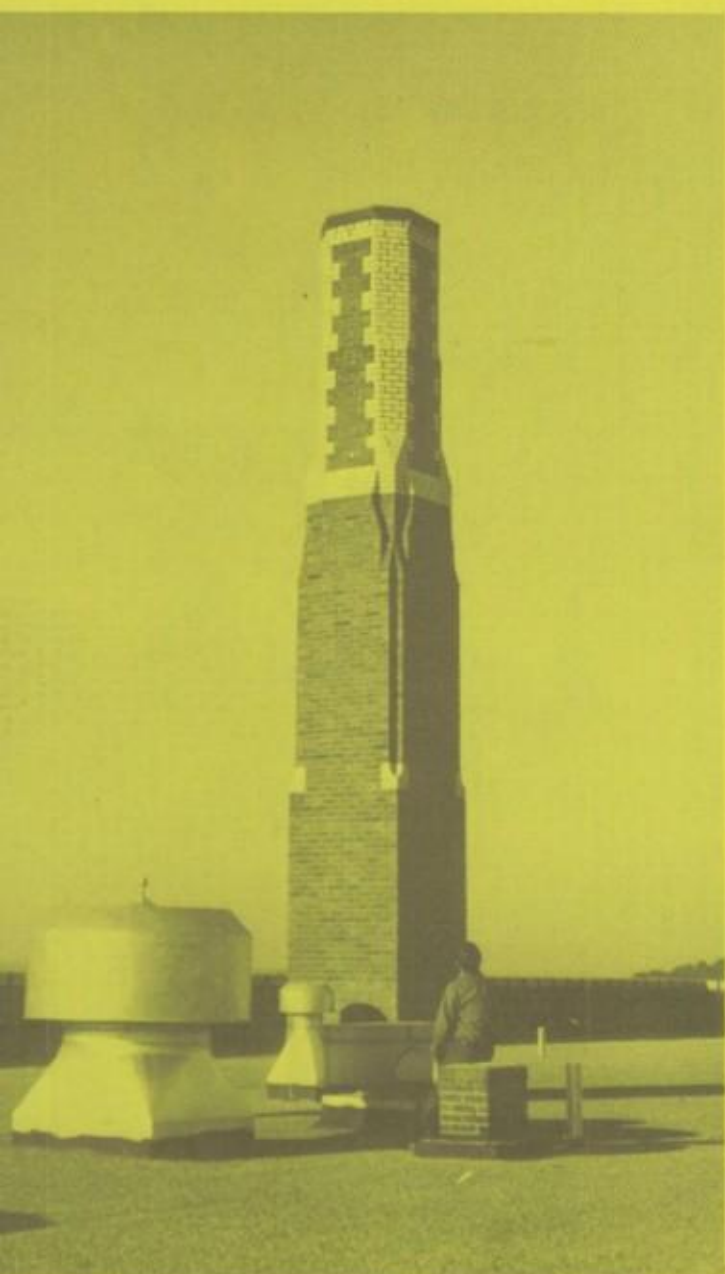

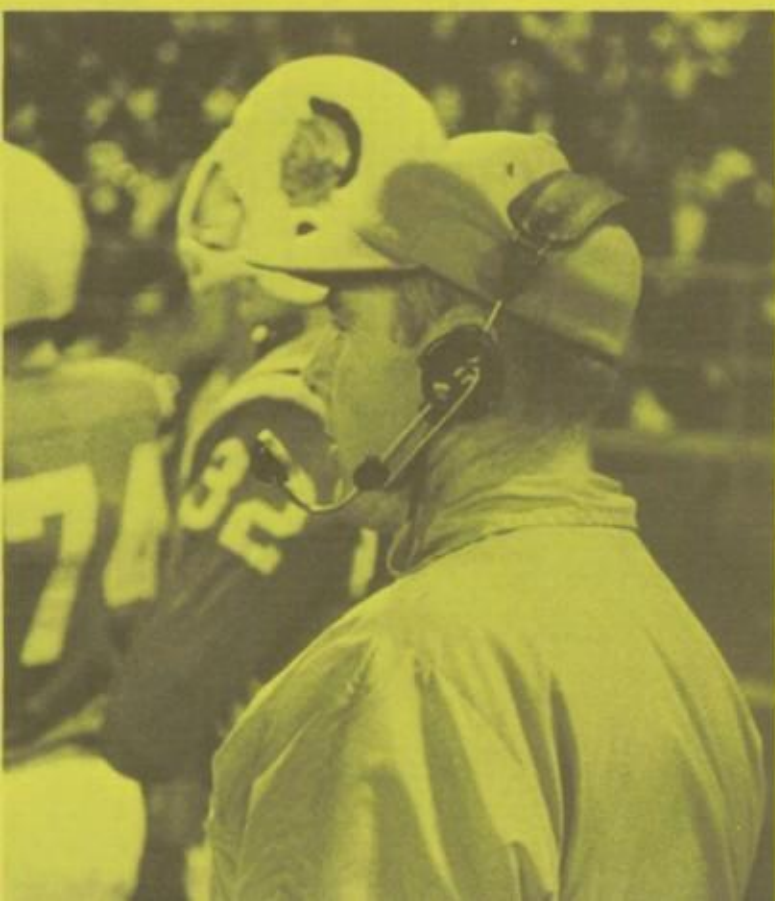

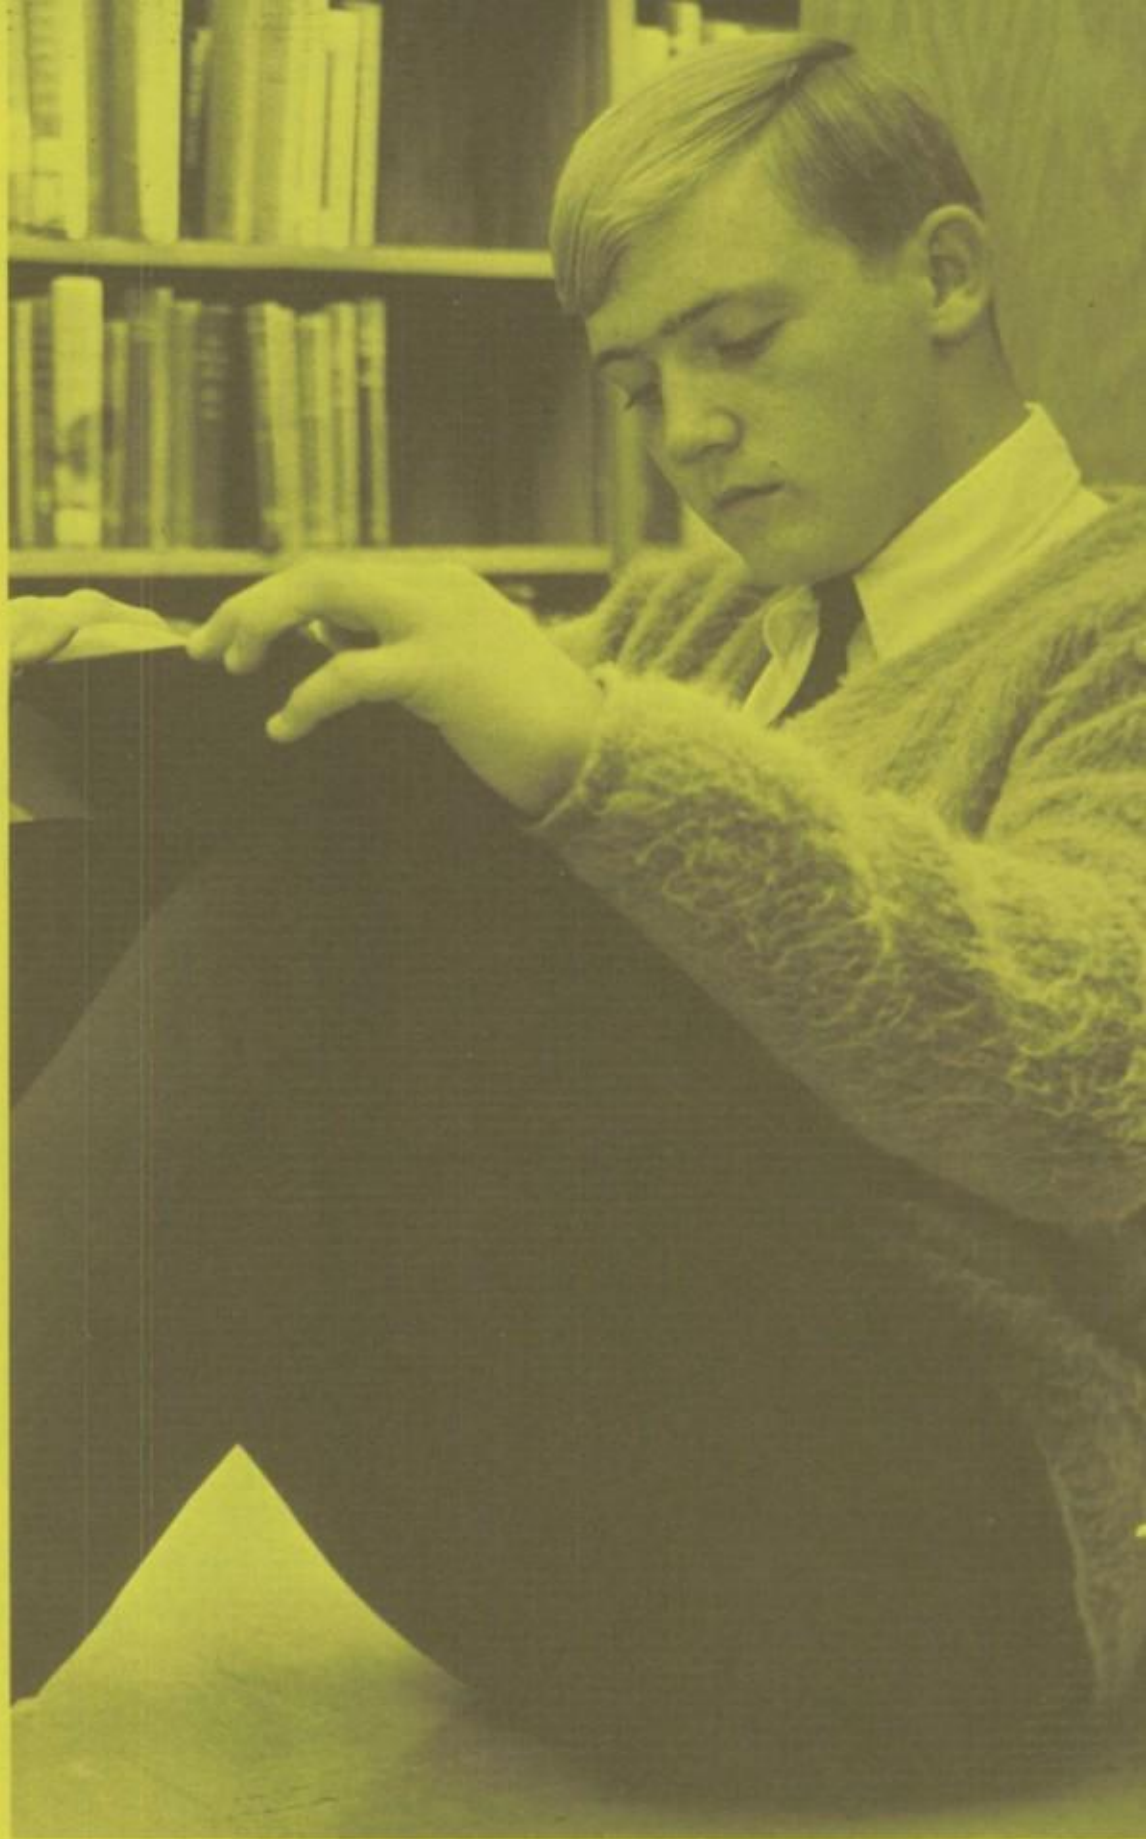

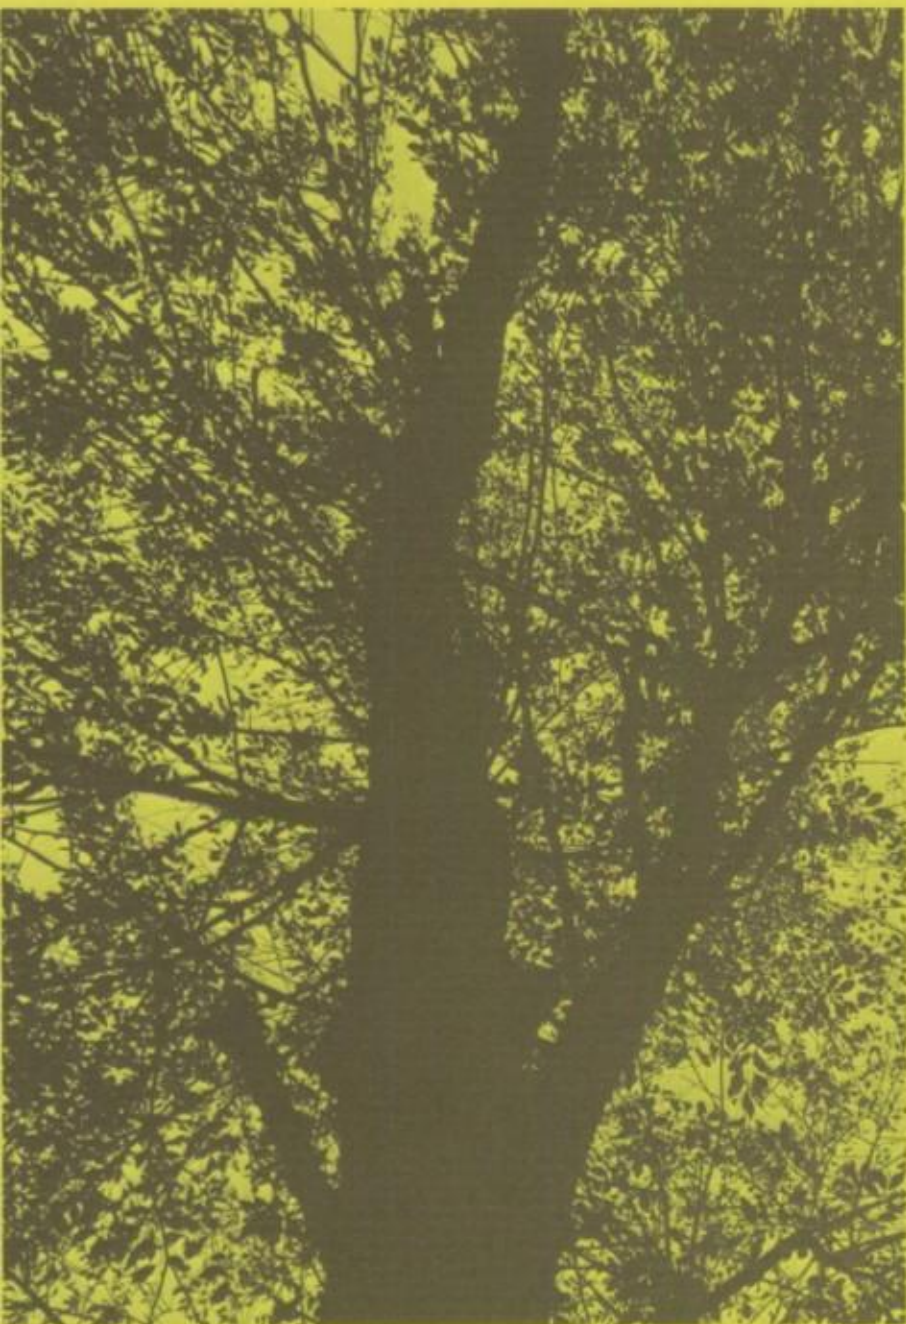

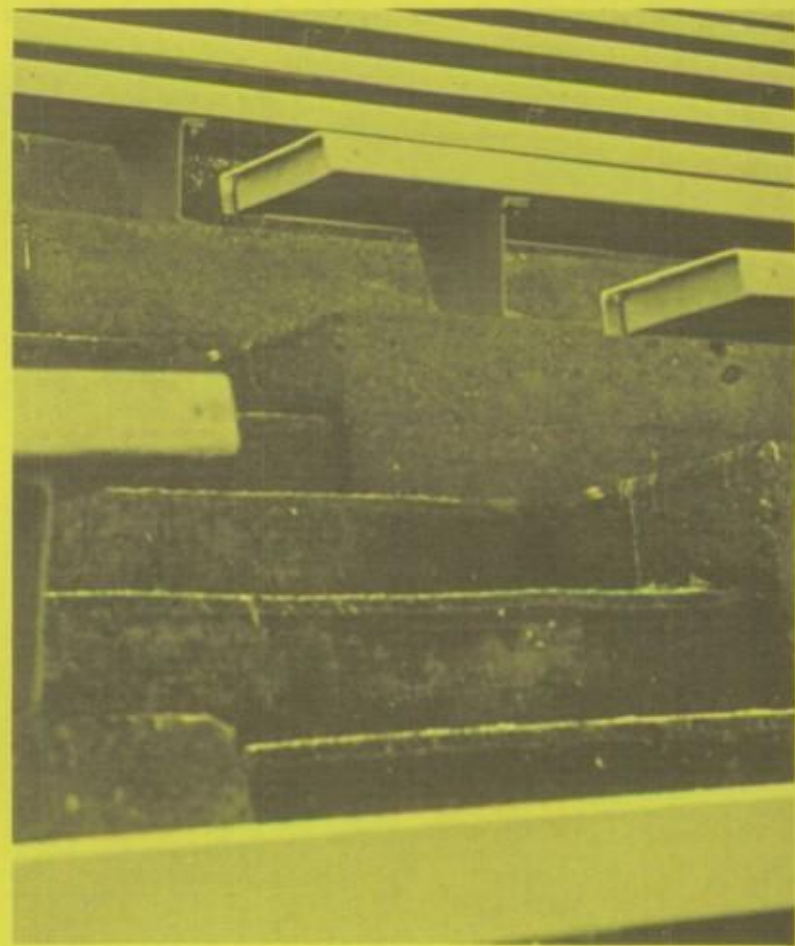

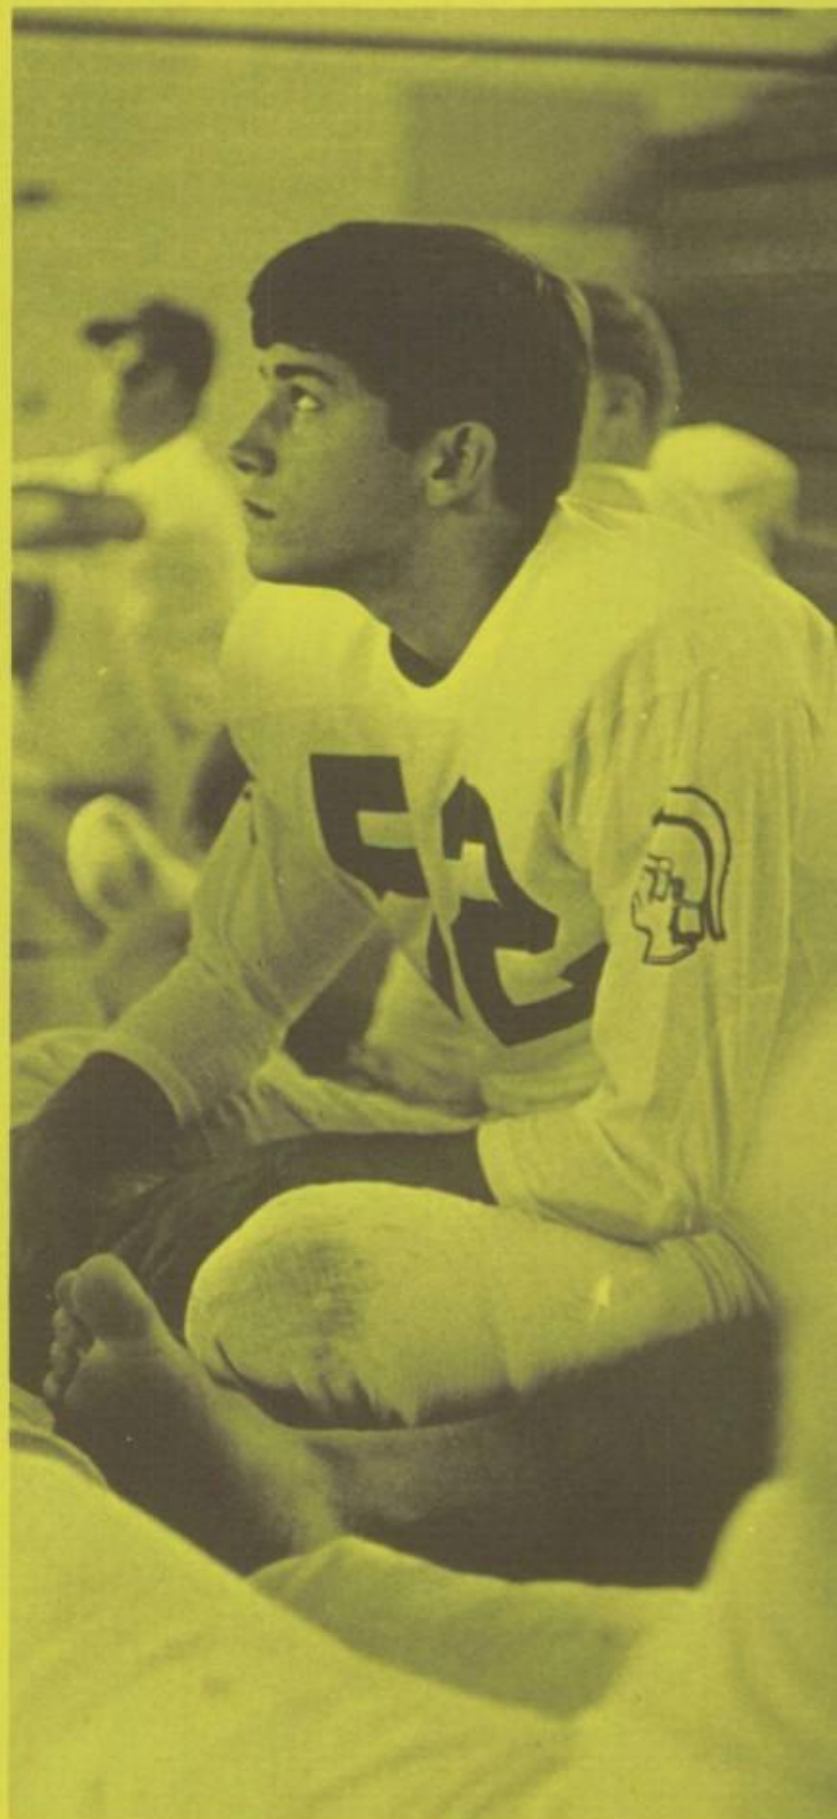

A monochromatic photograph with a yellowish-green tint. In the foreground, a tulip flower is in bloom, its petals slightly open. The flower is supported by a long, slender stem. To the right of the main flower, there is another stem that is mostly bare, with a few small, developing buds at the top. The background is a brick wall, which is the exterior of a school building. The words "SPRINGFIELD SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL" are visible on the wall, arranged in three lines. The lighting is soft, and the overall mood is quiet and contemplative.

Art 1: Seniors

Leading Roles

Mr. Springfield, Don Wallace

Because he has been outstanding scholastically, politically, and athletically during his years at Springfield, Don Wallace has been voted Mr. Springfield by his classmates.

Don has maintained a solid "A" average while participating in football, basketball, and baseball. He has led his class as president for four years and has been a member of National Honor Society, Varsity S, Mixed Chorus, Octet, and Student Council. Don was also chosen to represent Springfield at Buckeye Boy's State.

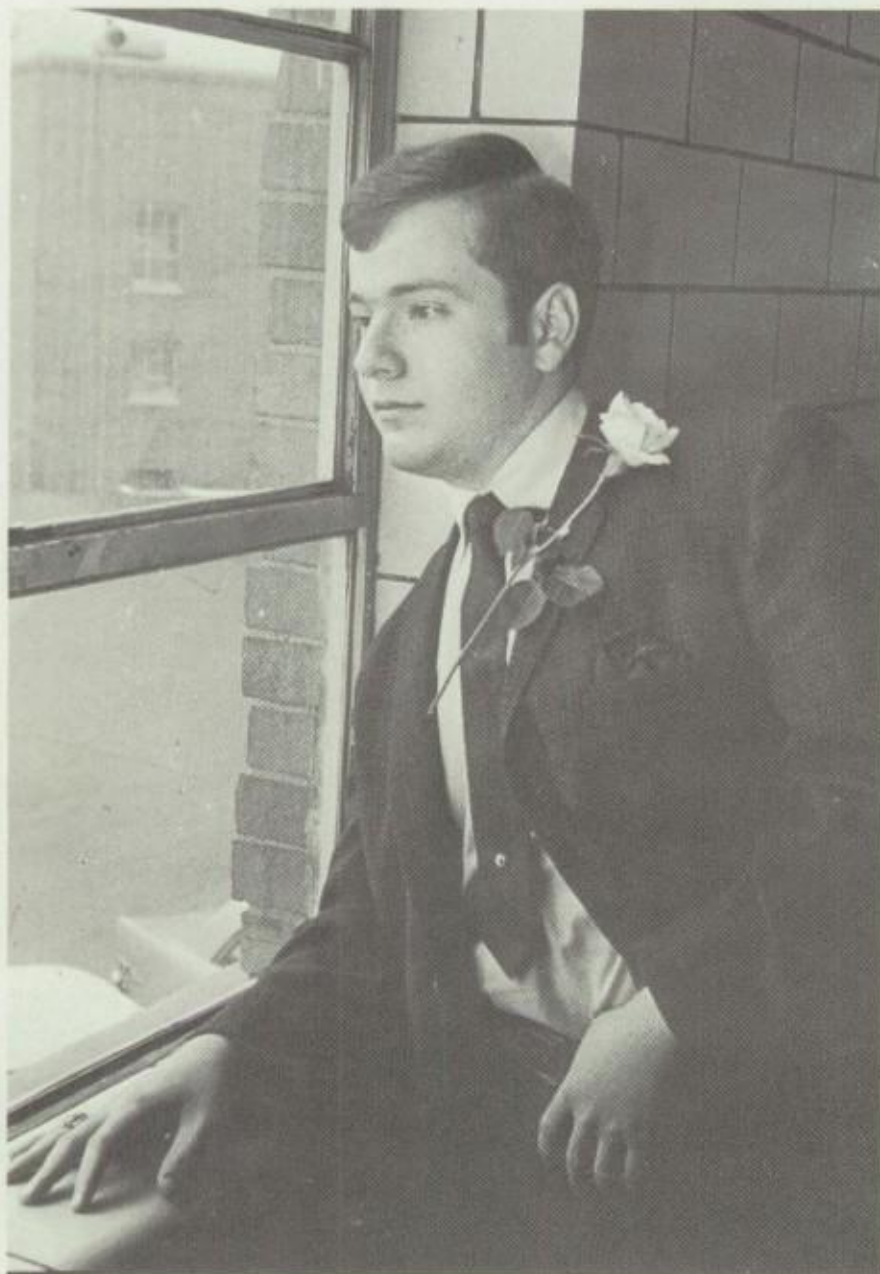

Miss Springfield, Sue Cochran

Sue Cochran has been voted Miss Springfield because she has been a determined worker and loyal friend to all those at Springfield. She has served as vice president of her class during her Freshman and Senior years. She has led Haromano as vice president and president respectively. Sue has participated in Student Council, National Honor Society, Mixed Chorus, Triple Trio, Kappa Chi, and Thespians. She has shown her journalistic talents by being editor of the Spartana, and being chosen honorary editor of the newspaper at Buckeye Girl's State, to which she was a delegate.

Sue has indeed shown herself to be worthy of the title "Miss Springfield".

CUM LAUDE

EUGENE USBERGHI — Tenth

Eugene has accumulated a 93.000 average while participating in several activities, one of which was Latin Club, for which he served as President.

DAN HARRISON — Sixth

Dan, an industrious student, has held outside jobs most of his high school years. He is a member of DCT and hopes to pursue a career in Welding Technology.

JACKIE WHITE — Ninth

Jackie serves as Secretary to the Rubber City Chapter of F.S.A. She is a member of National Honor Society. Jackie has been given a job at Firestone Tire and Rubber Company.

LUCY WYANT — Eighth

Lucy has been an outstanding member of F.S.A. and has served as Assistant Secretary of the Rubber City Chapter of that organization.

BOBBI TANNER — Seventh

Bobbi's main interest during her high school years has been the library. She has also been a member of Haromano, Thespians and National Honor Society. She is Springfield's recipient of the Chrysler Citizenship Award.

KAREN HENRY — Fifth

Karen has been affiliated with Latin Club, Haromano and has served as president of Leader Corps. She has accumulated a 93.468 average.

PHIL MARINO — Fourth

Phil has been active in both art and drama during his years at Springfield, shown by his outstanding contributions to the Thespians and his term as president of Art Club. Phil was elected to National Honor Society his Junior year.

DON WALLACE — Third

Don has maintained a 94.321 while leading his class as president during his four years at Springfield. Football, baseball, Student Council, Choir and Octet have highlighted Don's high school career. Don is a recipient of the Chrysler Citizenship Award.

An Honor Roll student, Kathy Pitz was elected to National Honor Society in her junior year, and served as vice-president during her senior year. She is very active in Haromano and is a librarian in the mixed chorus. Kathy has maintained a 94.656 throughout her years at Springfield.

Magna Cum Laude Kathy Pitz

Sue has not only maintained a 96.250 average during her high school years, but she has also participated in many extracurricular activities. She devotes much time to Student Council, National Honor Society, Choir, Triple Trio, and Thespians. Being president of Haromano and vice-president of the Senior Class have kept Sue busy.

Summa Cum Laude Sue Cochran

*A long, exact, and serious comedy;
In every scene some moral let it teach,
And if it can, at once both please and preach.*

The last few weeks and days of school life are a mixture of feelings for the graduating senior. He is caught between two worlds of experience. The honor of graduating is soon to become the humility of a new and unexplored phase of life. A new beginning enlightens the hopes for new opportunities yet is hazed by the sentiment of the past. The graduate realizes the reality of commencement when he is about to receive recognition for his efforts, materially in a diploma. Yet the diploma is the goal of all, and the realization of what will be left behind after it is achieved is covered by the thought of the prestige involved.

Too soon the graduate finishes his role in high school. As this scene draws to a close the scenery will reveal few changes but those which have been made have a lasting effect on the players.

Each student's role demands that he be versatile in many phases of school living. He may become the opinionated bull session member, the typical pal, the lonely individual, the prankster, or the sought after listener. He conveys happiness, dejection, earnestness, authority, individuality, determination, eagerness, doubt, frustration, and achievement. The student puts on the mask of learner and enters the magnetic phase of acquiring knowledge. He finds the barrage of classes becomes a detached routine.

The student's mask is partly removed when he becomes absorbed in his social life. His interests direct him in certain streams of advertence.

As each actor brings to his role his own personality, so each student brings to his school life his own ideas and aspirations. He is free to collect bits and pieces of life and to add them to his personality as he wishes, but he will always be himself.

The individuals add diversity yet perpetuate traditions and innovations as their ideas and aspirations are united with those of other individuals. The student is molded and shaped into a field, but his uniqueness is still the core of his being.

Springfield's Marching Band

The Marching Band practices every week day during the summer except the month of July. The band takes a traditional trip to camp for one solid week of practicing music. The hours of drilling account for the splendid performances locally and on national television.

Concert season starts at the end of the marching season. Members practice together for one hour every school day, not to mention the hours they spend on their own, learning music for their numerous concerts.

This yearbook attempts to reveal a scene in the life of each student at Springfield. The lights are turned up on another act in the continuing play of school life. Each student puts on masks to play his role in the many phases of school. Props are added, the script is adlibbed, and new actors take on leading roles. Each actor collects bits of life and adds them to his personality as he wishes, but he will always be himself.

The lights dim. Only after graduation do the students take time to look back and remember . . . a year has ended and another scene in life has passed. There is no real turning back; the lines have been spoken, but there is always to be a reflection of that year in all we do.

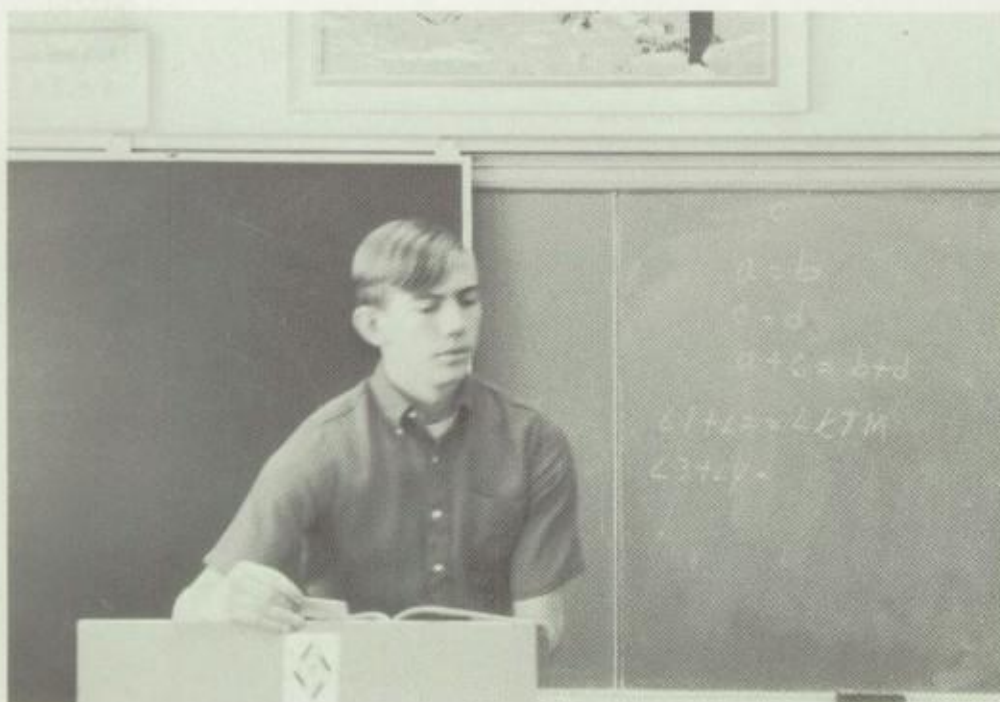

Sue Cochran, Editor

Sprag Staff

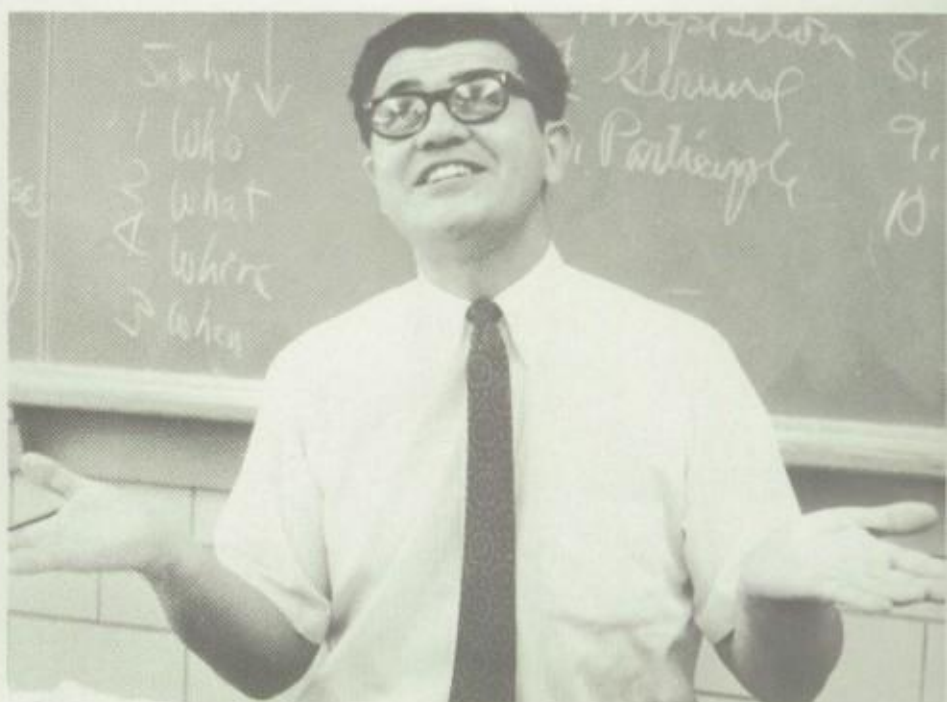

The name of the newspaper is made up of the first letters of "Springfield Red and Gray." It is also a word of Greek origin meaning to "boost and support."

The paper became affiliated with Quill and Scroll, an international honorary society for high school journalists, in May, 1936. Since then, the publication has rated high in evaluations made each spring by the society.

The publication is supported by advertising from the local business concerns, and by the payment of the subscription price by the students.

Quill and Scroll

Quill and Scroll offers a challenge to those members of the school paper and yearbook staff who wish to earn recognition for superior work in the field of journalism.

To be eligible, a student must be in the upper $\frac{1}{4}$ of his class, must have served an apprenticeship of one year on either the yearbook or paper, must show skill in writing, editing, or business management.

Make those deadlines!

Sprag and Spartana editors give Dan Dutton a hard time.

Quill and Scroll consists of Ed Jett, Cheryl Kray, Pam Baker, Jan Bittinger, Sue Cochran, Sally Salzer, Diane Gray, Lynne Marquard, Dan Dutton and Elaine Petroff.

Jackie Gavin, Sprag staff member of Quill and Scroll.

Haromano

Haromano is an honorary club for girls in the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. After a three point average is attained for one semester, a prospective member is sent an invitation. This average must be maintained to qualify for membership the following semester.

The purpose of the organization as stated by its constitution, is "to raise the social standards of Springfield, to promote high scholarship, and to promote high ideals and morals."

HAROMANO OFFICERS — Sue Cochran, President; Bobbi Tanner, Treasurer; Carolyn Ewart, Chaplain; Diane Gray, Secretary; Billie Mullins, Chaplain; Cathy Russell, Assistant Secretary; Sue Sword, Vice-president.

It's a unanimous vote!

Varsity "S"

Varsity "S" of Springfield High was formed to create an interest in and promote a better understanding of all sports. To become a member, the student must have earned and received a letter in one of the various sports offered at SHS such as football, golf, track, and cross-country. Managers are included and may be members.

The pyramid's final stage.

Danny Dutton explains to Rick Straw how to play basketball.

Kappa Chi

Kappa Chi was organized for the purpose of creating additional social and recreational opportunities for the students of Springfield High School. The name has a special significance. The words "Kappa" and "Chi" are two letters of the Greek alphabet. They are the first letters of the two Greek words meaning "Christian Fellowship."

KAPPA CHI OFFICERS — Ted Rudy, Vice-President; Connie Dodds, Secretary; Joy Wagner, Treasurer; Paula France, President.

Chess Club

The Chess Club, sponsored by Mr. Jerry Proper, encourages students to compete in tournaments and intraschool chess tournaments.

CHESS CLUB OFFICERS — Pat Lambert, President; Brian Boyter, Vice-President; Ray Critchfield, Secretary-Treasurer.

F.T.A.

Future Teachers of America was organized at Springfield in 1948 in response to the queries of those people who showed interest in and desired information about the teaching profession. Membership is open to all junior and senior students who have already decided on teaching as a career, and those who may still be undecided.

F.T.A. members discuss plans in the library.

JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE — Jim Jenkins, Historicus; Debbie Neal, Quaestor; Marcia Lehman, Scriba; Kelly Heddleston, Praetor secundus; Dave Davis, Praetor.

Historicus Jim Jenkins offers five-cents for freshman slave Debbie Dye.

Mrs. Burkins, Advisor.

Slave Charlotte Miller is considered by prospective buyers.

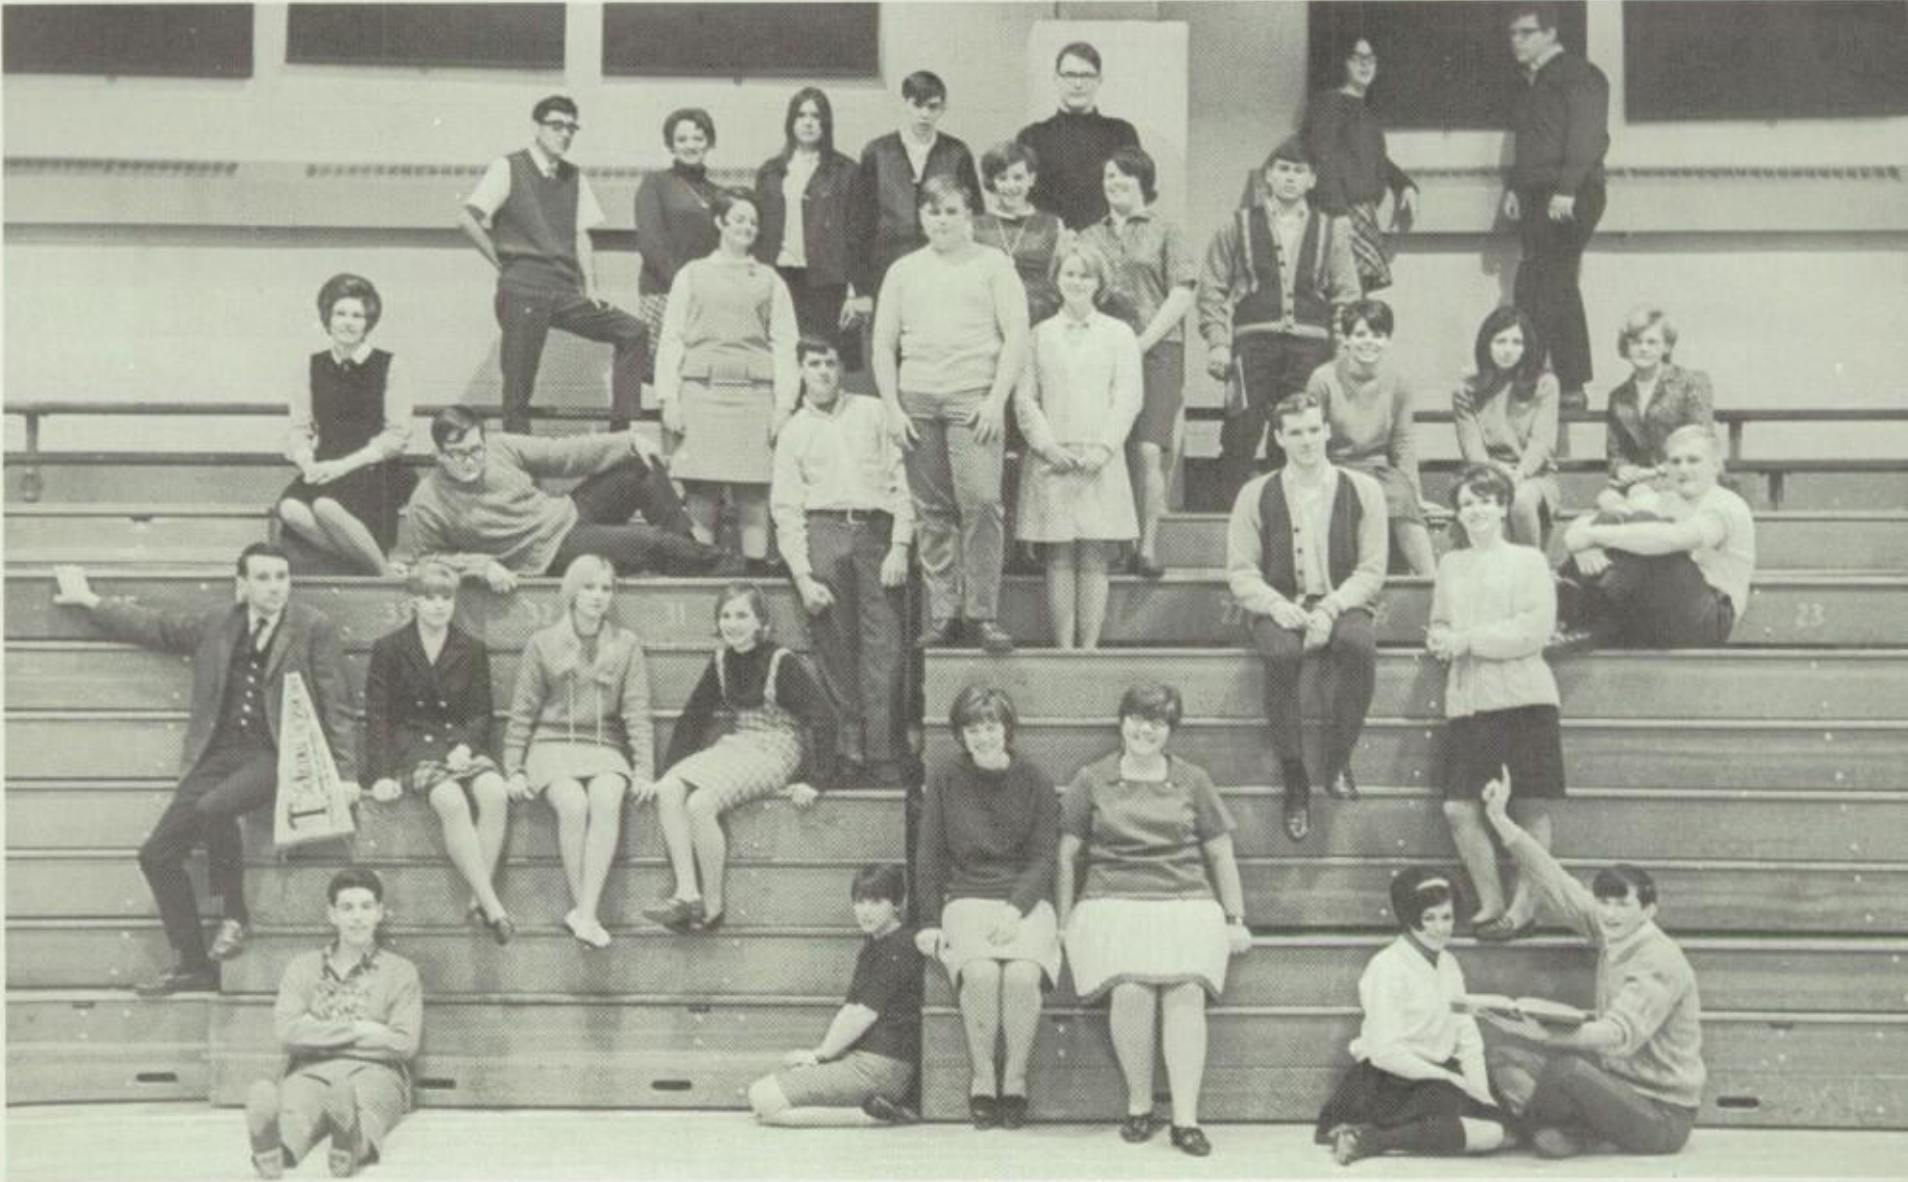

Latin Club

Springfield's Latin Club is a Chapter of the Junior Classical League which is a national organization. The purpose of the Latin Club is to encourage an interest in an appreciation of the civilization, language, literature, and art of Ancient Greece and Rome, to give members some understanding of the debt of our own culture to that of classical antiquity and to promote the classical course.

Dramatics and Thespians

Dramatics Club was formed to promote further interest in drama and to provide additional social opportunities for the students at Springfield.

Thespians is a national honorary society for high school dramatists. Its purpose is to create a more active and intelligence interest in high school dramatics.

Thespians strike a dramatic pose.

Dramatic Clubbers act out a scene from the "Fantasticks."

Brush and Palette

The Brush and Palette Club is a fairly new organization at Springfield. Among the activities participated in by the art club are visits to art museums and interior decorating shops, sketching trips, participation in art shows and social activities.

OFFICERS — Pat Wilson, Treasurer; Pam Wilson, Secretary; Phil Marino, President; Jan Bittinger, Vice-President; Mr. Bako, Advisor.

B.O.E.

The philosophy of Business and Office Education is one of training the individual student to be prepared for an entry-level position in the business occupation of his ability and choice. The philosophy is to develop the student's ability to fulfill the requirements presented by today's industry to office workers through a flexible and realistic approach.

O.W.E.

Under the guidance of Mr. Jim Herro, the Occupational Work Experience Program assists students in finding employment at the unskilled level. The major objective of the two-year program is learning job skills combined with school work and is offered to students sixteen years old or over.

Reading Laboratory

The Reading Laboratory serves the high school and two grade schools; Lakemore and Sawyerwood. Most of the material in the laboratory was purchased under Title I, E.S.E.A. Just a few of our long list of goals are to develop greater skills in individualized reading, studying, vocabulary building, and reading comprehension.

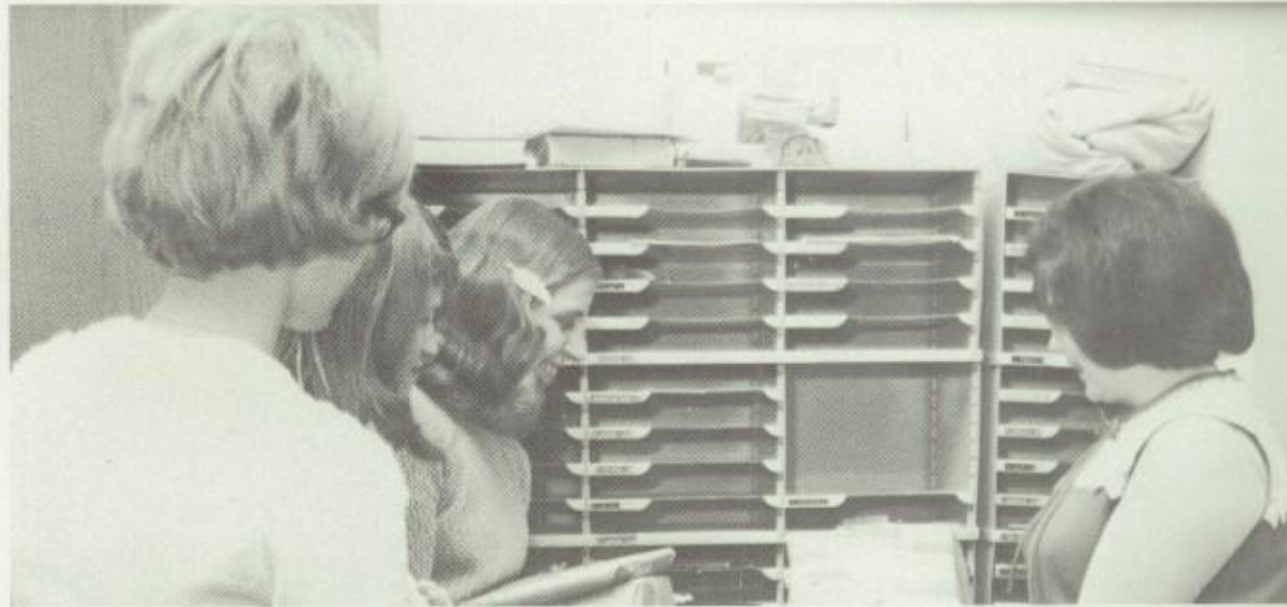

Students make use of the Reading Lab.

Student Assistants

The library assistants aid the librarians in the upkeep and the smooth functioning of the high school library. Their services are always available to students and teachers alike.

The high school secretaries are much assisted by the unselfish help given by the office assistants. Much time is devoted to make the office efficient and keep it functioning properly.
